

IPEX as a processor

As a professional and trusted supplier,
IPEX makes the following commitments to its customers

An IT infrastructure, procedures and processes developed to comply with GDPR guidelines « by design ».

A maximum security in data exchanges with clients.

The storage of customer data on the European territory.

Use of data received from customers strictly within the scope of the defined mission, never for our own purposes.

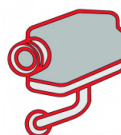

The storage of data received from customers in accordance with contractually agreed terms

A clearly defined mission framework.

The principle of transparency, particularly when using subprocessors.
We watch that they comply with the GDPR.

A secured processing and production center.

A highly sensitized and trained staff about security, bounded by a confidentiality clause.

A Data Protection Officer.
dpo@ipexgroup.com

An immediate information and assistance to our client in case of confidentiality breach.

ISO 27001 certification illustrating the adoption of appropriate technical and organizational measures to propose an optimal level of security

The terms of this subcontracting are set out in more detail in the contract and our general terms and conditions of sale.